MAGISTRATE JUDGE

United States of America vs.
BADOLATI, Gino

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On January 29, 2014, at approximately 1958 hours, Gino BADOLATI attempted to enter the United States at the San Ysidro Port of Entry, San Diego, CA as the driver and sole occupant of a green 1996 Jeep Cherokee bearing license plate CA/US 5CSV656. A Customs and Border Protection (CBP) canine alerted to the vehicle for the presence of narcotics. A CBP Officer received two negative customs declarations from BADOLATI. BADOLATI presented his valid US passport card as his entry document. BADOLATI and his vehicle were referred to secondary inspection where a CBP Officer examined the vehicle and discovered that packages were concealed inside the gas tank and rear seat. The inspection resulted in the seizure of approximately 76.90 kilograms (40 packages) of a green leafy substance that field-tested positive for the properties of marijuana.

BADOLATI was arrested for violating Title 21 United States Codes 952 & 960, Importation of a Controlled Substance. BADOLATI was booked into the Metropolitan Correctional Center, San Diego, CA.
